FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT FOR CO-OPERATION
BETWEEN the
CARIBBEAN DEVELOPMENT BANK (CDB)
AND
THE ASSOCIATION OF CARIBBEAN STATES (ACS)

The Caribbean Development Bank (hereinafter referred to as "CDB"), represented by its President, Hyginus Leon AND the Association of Caribbean States (hereinafter referred to as "the ACS"), represented by the Secretary General, Rodolfo Sabonge, each hereinafter also referred to individually as "the Party" and collectively referred to as "the Parties".

Considering that Article IX (h) of the Convention establishing the ACS authorizes the Secretary General to negotiate and conclude agreements with third parties, institutions, states or other entities for the advancement of the work of the ACS.

Reaffirming that both Parties identify with one another in the desire to strengthen co-operation in all spheres, in accordance with the purposes, scope and objectives enshrined in the Convention establishing the ACS and in the Agreement Establishing the CDB.

Recognizing that many of the Member States of the ACS are also Member Countries of CDB.

Recognizing that the consolidation, intensification and diversification of co-operation provided by Observer countries, have as their basic objective assistance to the Member States of the ACS, particularly the less developed.

Recalling that through Ministerial Council Agreement 7/22 adopted at the 27th Ordinary Meeting of the Ministerial Council held virtually on 29th April 2022 CDB was admitted as an Observer to the ACS.

Recalling further that CDB's Strategic Plan 2020-24 and the ACS focal areas have synergy with 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, adopted by the United Nations General Assembly by virtue of Agreement A/RES/70/1 "Transforming our World: The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development" on September 25th, 2015.

The Parties agree as follows:

I

Objectives of Co-operation
