

El Secretario General asistirá a la Cuarta Sesión de la Plataforma Global para la Reducción del Riesgo de Desastres

Global Platform for disaster risk reduction

Port-of-Spain,

Trinidad and Tobago (May 17th, 2013) - The Secretary

General of the Association of Caribbean States is expected to make a presentation at the Fourth Session of the Global Platform for Disaster Reduction, which is scheduled to take place from 19th

- 23rd May 2013 in Geneva, Switzerland. The theme of this year's

Global Platform is: Invest Today for a Safer Tomorrow Resilient People -

Resilient Planet.

This Global Platform, hosted by the United Nations

Office for Disaster Risk Reduction (UNISDR), will gather Governments, intergovernmental organizations, NGOs, local communities, Mayors,

Parliamentarians, scientific and academic institutions, the private sector and other social actors in the field of disaster risk reduction, to debate on issues such as the progress made in risk reduction and resilience building in this focal area.

Additionally, the Global Platform will be facilitating multilateral stakeholder consultations on a post - 2015 disaster risk reduction framework (HFA2) as the successor arrangement to the Hyogo Framework for Action 2005-2015: Building the Resilience of Communities and Nations to Disasters.

The Secretary General will participate in the regional Inter-Governmental Organizations (IGOs) stakeholder Consultation on Monday 20th May as well as the Global Platform. This IGOs Consultation will seek to develop a post 2015 disaster risk reduction framework.
